Star Player of the Week

No sign-in, no password. Everything you need to know, in five steps.

How it works

Pick your name

- 1 Open the app, find yourself in the dropdown, and hit Join. It's yours on this phone from then on — so make sure it's really you before you tap it.

Say if your stats are up or down

One tap, before you can vote — and you can switch between Up and Down any time.

- 2 Only "Stats Up" goes on this week's poll. Switch to "Stats Down" and you're off it, and any votes you'd already received stop counting; anyone who voted for you is told to vote again. You still get to vote. Your choice is cleared after every reveal, so you pick again each round.

Vote for a teammate

Pick whoever went above and beyond. Change your mind anytime before voting closes. You can't pick yourself.

Your vote stays secret

Who you picked isn't written down anywhere — not for teammates, not for KG, Steph, or OB, not in the database. It stays on your own phone.

The winner is revealed

- 5 Once everyone's voted, KG, Steph, or OB reveals the Star Player — you'll see it land on your own phone the moment they do. If it's a tie, the wheel breaks apart and everyone who tied wins together — two, three, however many. A few seconds after that, everyone except whoever revealed it is signed out back to the start screen.

Questions

Your name says "Taken" — but it's you?

That's the old phone still holding it, usually after clearing your browser or switching devices. It frees itself after about 15 minutes — or ask KG, Steph, or OB to free it up sooner, then tap it again.

Picked the wrong name, or want to start over?

Tap Home at the top to go back to the home screen and pick a different name. It's one vote per device: going Home takes back the vote you cast and clears your stats choice, so everyone should vote on their own phone. Votes other people gave you are never touched.

Can anyone see who you voted for?

No — and not because we promise not to look. It's never recorded anywhere. Not by KG, Steph, OB, or anyone.

Why isn't a teammate on the poll?

They haven't marked "Stats Up" for this week yet. The list fills in live the moment they do — no need to refresh.

No vote screen at all — just a locked message?

KG, Steph, or OB hasn't tapped "Start Voting" yet this week. A fresh week begins every Friday, but voting itself only opens once one of them starts it.
